

ANSWERS:

Great Bay Foods Eaten by Native Americans

Directions:

Unscramble each of the clue words to discover foods eaten by Native Americans around Great Bay. Copy the letters in the numbered boxes of each of the clue words into the final word box at the bottom to find the mystery word.

SAMLC    CLAMS    Clue: Native Americans harvested this animal from the mudflats of Great Bay.

SKMIPNUP    PUMPKINS    Clue: I grow on a vine and am orange when ripe.

DERE    DEER    Clue: Native Americans made clothes out of this animal's hide called buckskin.

HIFS    FISH    Clue: Native Americans had many ways to catch this animal, like with spears, nets, and poles.

CONR    CORN    Clue: Native Americans called me 'maize'.

NESBA    BEANS    Clue: One of the three important crops grown by Native Americans.

RUIRESLQ    SQUIRREL    Clue: I eat nuts and seeds and build a nest out of leaves at the tops of trees.

SORBSLET    LOBSTERS    Clue: Native Americans fished for these crustaceans and used their shells to fertilize their crops.

SAUHSQ    SQUASH    Clue: Common types of these are pumpkins and gourds.

SOARNC    ACORNS    Clue: Native Americans ground these into flour for cooking.

SORTEYS    OYSTERS    Clue: This animal's shells can be found in piles called middens.

BAVREE    BEAVER    Clue: Our pelts were traded for items by Native Americans and colonists for items like blankets and knives.

SUTRKMA    MUSKRAT    Clue: This animal was hunted in the freshwater marshes by Native Americans.

DCKU    DUCK    Clue: Many of my kind gather on Great Bay in the fall during our migration south.

SATLIACT    CATTAILS    Clue: Native Americans ate all of the parts of this plant, including the roots, leaves, and flowers.

HISPESRO    ROSEHIPS    Clue: We were a good source of vitamin C for Native Americans.

Mystery Word:

BLACKBERRIES

Clue: Native Americans picked these sweet fruits in the summer.