

Tales of Great Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve

Make up your own stories using words from each list. Maybe one story could be something that might really happen in an estuary, and another could be a fanciful tale.

Who?

great blue heron
red fox
green crab
silversides fish
snowy egret
winter flounder
raccoon
deer
horseshoe crab
clam worm
mud snail
bald eagle
rainbow smelt

How?

hungrily
hastily
sadly
happily
stupidly
greedily
cleverly
weakly
smugly
eagerly
sleepily
silently
easily

Action Word

flew
crawled
hid chased
burrowed
nibbled
fled
tiptoed
swam
emerged
waited

Where?

under the marsh
through the channel
into the mud
overhead
below the tideline
among the eelgrass
on the shore
behind the rock wall
between the islands

---

---

---

---

Examples:

The green crab hastily crept beneath the seaweed, as the great blue heron flew silently overhead.

The clam worm hungrily chased the winter flounder, which tiptoed behind the rock wall.

