

Once Upon a Winter Estuary

This series is ideal for youngsters ages 2-5 and runs from 10:30a.m. -11:30a.m. on select Thursdays in January, February and March. Come dressed ready for some winter fun outdoors! We'll start each program outside with activities, games and wintery walks. Following our outdoor exploration, we'll move inside to warm with up with a story, craft and hot cocoa! $3 per child or $5 per family. Pre-registration is required. Email Jay.sullivan@wildlife.nh.gov or call 778-0015

Thursday January 9th

Goodbye Autumn, Hello Winter by Kenard Pak.

Each season has a magic and personality all it's own. Come say hello to winter and all the things we look for and enjoy about it.

Thursday January 23rd

Waiting for Winter by Sebastian Mescenmoser

Do you remember the first time you saw the snow fall? We all get excited to see the magic of new snow! Come play with us and learn about animals that like to play in it too.

Thursday February 6th

Winter Dance by Marion Dane Bauer

Squirrels gather nuts, geese fly south and other animals put on their winter coat. How do you get ready for winter? Join us as we learn more about what animals do when the days get colder.

Thursday February 20th

When the Snow Falls by Linda Booth Sweeney

We like to play in the snow and the animals do too! Join us as we have some winter fun playing and looking for signs of animals that stay active in the cold.

Thursday March 5th

Fort Building Time by Megan Wagner Lloyd

Each season brings the perfect materials to build the perfect fort! Join us as we use snow and/or other materials to build a fort and have some fun together!

Thursday March 19th

Goodbye Winter, Hello Spring by Kenard Pak

Are you ready to say goodbye to winter? Join us as we look for melting snow, chipmunks and other signs of green as we get ready to say hello to spring!